Recibiendo a un querido amigo Embracing a dear friend

Bienvenido de nuevo Paul Salamunovich. Hemos invitado a nuestro adorado Director Musical Emérito nominado al Grammy a que dirija una de sus especialidades, el Réquiem de Duruflé. Maurice Duruflé encontró un alma gemela en el Maestro Salamunovich y su mutuo amor por el canto Gregoriano les llevó a una larga y fructífera relación — y un magnífico CD de la Master Chorale con Salamunovich dirigiendo la Messe "cum jubilo" (1966) de Duruflé. Duruflé escribió tres versiones del Réquiem, su obra más famosa e influyente. Vamos a interpretar la versión para órgano en solitario de 1947, hecha a la medida de la envolvente cámara de sonido del Frank Gehry y su espléndido órgano. Escrita con minuciosidad, el Réquiem de estilo "new-age" de Duruflé fusiona el canto Gregoriano con conceptos del siglo 20 y teje un tapiz seductor, casi cósmico de las emociones humanas — desde las cumbres de un júbilo estático hasta momentos más reflexivos. Es un Réquiem más delicado, más lleno de esperanza, que habla con elocuencia sobre los anhelos universales de hoy día. Cuando Paul Salamunovich se retiró en 2001, la Master Chorale hizo pública la esperanza de que pudiéramos tenerle siempre cerca. La profundamente conmovedora obra maestra de Duruflé es la oportunidad perfecta para su regreso.

Welcome back, Paul Salamunovich. We've invited our beloved Grammy-nominated Music Director Emeritus to conduct one of his specialties, the Duruflé Requiem. Maurice Duruflé recognized a kindred soul in Maestro Salamunovich, and their mutual love of Gregorian chant led to a long, fruitful relationship — and a terrific Master Chorale CD with Salamunovich conducting Duruflé's (1966) Messe "cum Jubilo." Duruflé wrote three versions of the Requiem, his most famous and influential work. The Chorale is performing the 1947 version for organ and chorus — made-to-order for Frank Gehry's surround-sound chamber and splendid organ. Meticulously written, Duruflé's "new-age" Requiem fuses Gregorian chant with 20th century technique and weaves an embracing, almost cosmic tapestry of human emotion — from ecstatic joy to the pensive. It's a gentler, more hopeful requiem that speaks eloquently to today's universal yearnings. When Paul Salamunovich retired in 2001, the Master Chorale voiced the hope that we could keep him close to us forever. Duruflé's deeply moving masterpiece makes for the perfect return engagement.

BOBBY RODRIGUEZ

La Magia de los Ritmos Latinos

por Bobby Rodriguez

Ya sea un mambo cubano o un meregue de la República Dominicana, los ritmos latinos están llenos de felicidad, alegría y son ideales para bailar. Bailar música latina les encanta a jóvenes y mayores por igual gracias a sus movimientos y elementos físicos. Hoy en día, la cumbia de Colombia es uno de los estilos de baile más populares, especialmente en México y América Central.

En los años 20, el teatro Broadway de New York trajo los sonidos e imágenes latinas al público norteamericano. En los 30, sin embargo, los norteamericanos fueron tomando conciencia de los variados estilos, el exotismo y las impresionantes imágenes de la música latina a través de las películas de Hollywood. El tango, por ejemplo, se hizo inmensamente popular gracias en parte a parejas de baile como Maurice y Walton o Vernon e Irene Castle; fueron las películas las que ayudaron a darle al sonido latino su atractivo universal.

Gracias a celebridades como Don Azpiazú, Xavier Cugat, Desi Arnaz, Carmen Miranda, y películas como Flying Down To Rio de 1933 (donde Ginger Rogers y Fred Astaire actuaron juntos por primera vez), sin duda los norteamericanos se estaban aficionando a la música latina. En 1940, Alberto Socarras tocó en competencia con Glenn Miller en el Glen Island Casino en New Rochelle, New York. Unos años después en New York City, la mayoría de los clubs nocturnos tenían dos bandas: la banda "principal" y la banda "del descanso" que tocaba entre segmentos.

Las bandas americanas de swing y las "big bands" pronto adoptaron nueva instrumentación, cuatro trompetas, cuatro trombones, y cinco saxofones junto a una sección rítmica que incluía piano, bajo, batería y guitarra. Cuando las bandas latinas quisieron competir con las bandas americanas y modernizar su sonido, empezaron a usar la misma instrumentación de viento, además de piano, bajo y una sección de ritmo latino, incluyendo timbales, batería, conga, bongo, percusión manual y vocalistas.

En los años 50, cuando la fiebre del mambo estalló en los Estados Unidos, los americanos adoptaron la música latina como algo propio. A través de los ricos sonidos de las grandes orquestas como las de Perez Prado, Stan Kenton, Xavier Cugat, Machito, José Curbelo, Tito Puente, y Tito Rodriguez, los americanos se volvieron locos por el baile. Ya sea debido al fin de la Segunda Guerra Mundial, la reunificación de las familias, la "vida sencilla" de los años 50 o la sensualidad y el "romanticismo" desenfrenado del bolero mexicano, el danzón cubano, el tango argentino o la rumba, los americanos querían cada vez más. Gracias a grandes baladas como "Aquellos Ojos Verdes", "Bésame Mucho", "Siboney", "María Elena", "Sabor a Mí", y "Sólamente Una Vez", los americanos estaban bailando bien pegaditos los ritmos que sacaban a relucir una parte más íntima del baile en pareja.

En la cumbre del swing y la música latina (1945-55), los bailarines llenaban grandes salones de baile. Hoy día, el swing está relegado a salas más pequeñas, pero la "salsa", un nuevo término para el mambo, está llenad de nuevo grandes salas de baile en toda América, Europa y Japón. La popularidad de los ritmos de baile latinos es más alta que nunca, ya sea por los inmigrantes de América o por los grupos musicales que se embarcan en giras por las grandes ciudades de país, lo que hace que gente de todas las edades y procedencias estén aprendiendo más sobre los ritmos latinos y la música de baile latina. Artistas latinos y de jazz latino como Machito, Perez Prado, Tito Puente, Mongo Santamaria, Celia Cruz, Ray Barretto, Joe Cuba, Cal Tjader, Willie Bobo, Gato Barbieri, Eddie Palmieri, así como estrellas del pop como Gloria Estefan, Christina Aguilera, Carlos Santana, Ricky Martin, Marc Anthony, Jennifer Lopez, y Luis Miguel han inyectado elementos de la música latina a la música pop americana hasta el punto de influenciarla de forma indefinible. Los Estados Unidos están en medio de un periodo de "latinización". Con un empuje muy particular, la música latina se ha asegurado su futuro en este país como un estilo que

tonight's concert

todos bailaremos tarde o temprano. A pesar de su larga y rica historia e innegable futuro, un estudiante de 5º grado lo resumió mejor que nadie diciéndome "bailar música latina es divertido; te hace sentir bien y además ¡es muy buen ejercicio!"

The Magic of Latin Rhythms

By Bobby Rodriguez

Whether it's a Cuban mambo or a merengue from the Dominican Republic, Latin rhythms are happy, fun, and great to dance to. Young and old alike love Latin dance music because of its movements and physical elements. Today, the cumbia from Colombia is one of the Americas' most popular dance styles, especially in Mexico and Central America.

In the 1920s, it was New York's Broadway theatre which brought Latin sounds and images to North American audiences. But in the 1930s, North Americans were gaining a greater awareness of Latin music's varied styles, exotic nature, and broad images through Hollywood movies. The tango, for example, gained mass appeal partly due to dance teams such as Maurice and Walton and Vernon and Irene Castle; it was movies which helped give the "Latin sound" its mass appeal.

Because of celebrities such as Don Azpiazú, Xavier Cugat, Desi Arnaz, Carmen Miranda, and films such as 1933's Flying Down To Rio (which paired Ginger Rogers and Fred Astaire for the first time), North Americans were definitely becoming "hooked" on Latin music. In 1940, Alberto Socarras played opposite Glenn Miller at the Glen Island Casino in New Rochelle, New York. A few years later in New York City, most night clubs would have two bands: the main or "headlining" band and the "break" band playing between sets.

The American swing and big bands soon adopted new instrumentation: four trumpets, four trombones, and five saxophones along with a rhythm section that would include piano, bass, drum set, and guitar. When the Latin bands wanted to compete with the American bands and modernize their sound, they also began using the same horn instrumentation, in addition to piano, bass and Latin rhythm section, including timbales, drum set, conga, bongo, hand percussion and vocalists.

In the 1950s, when the mambo craze exploded in the U.S., Americans took to Latin music like "ducks to water." Through the rich sounds of big orchestras like those of Perez Prado, Stan Kenton, Xavier Cugat, Machito, José Curbelo, Tito Puente and Tito Rodriguez, Americans went dance crazy. Be it because of the ending of World War II, the reunification of families, the "easy days" of the 1950s, or the sensuality and outright "romanticism" of the Mexican bolero, Cuban danzon, Argentinean tango, or the rumba, Americans simply couldn't get enough of Latin music. Because of great love songs like "Aquellos Ojos Verdes", "Besame Mucho", "Siboney", "Maria Elena", "Sabor a Mi", and "Solamente Una Ves", Americans were dancing cheek-to-cheek to the rhythms that brought out a more intimate side of dancing with a partner.

In swing and Latin music's heyday (roughly 1945-55), dancers filled large ballrooms. Today, swing dancing is relegated to smaller venues, but salsa, a new term for mambo, is again filling major dance rooms throughout America, Europe and Japan. The popularity of Latin dance rhythms is at an all-time high, and, whether because of immigrants to America or visiting music groups touring throughout major cities across the country, people of all ages and backgrounds are learning more about Latin rhythms and Latin dance music. Latin artists such as Machito, Perez Prado, Tito Puente, Mongo Santamaría, Celia Cruz, Ray Barretto, Joe Cuba, Cal Tjader, Willie Bobo, Gato Barbieri, Eddie Palmieri, as well as pop music stars like Gloria Estefan, Christina Aguilera, Carlos Santana, Ricky Martin, Marc Anthony, Jennifer Lopez and Luis Miguel have infused American pop music with elements of Latin music to a degree that one would be hard-pressed to define. The U.S. is in the middle of a "Latinization" period.

With its unmistakable momentum, Latin music has secured its future in this country as a style that we'll all be dancing to. Despite its long, rich, and varied history and undeniable future, one 5th grader summed it up best when she told me "dancing to Latin music is fun; it makes you feel good and it's good exercise too!"

SALVADOR RUIZ DE LUNA

Born: 1905 in Spain

Died: 1973

Relatively little is known about this Spanish composer. De Luna's numerous works primarily consist of music for films and arrangements of traditional songs from various Spanish-speaking countries. He is thought to have been a "song catcher" – someone who made formal songs from unrecorded, little-known traditional tunes and lyrics.

Nació: el 1905 en España

Murió: el 1973

Se sabe muy poco sobre este compositor español. Las numerosas obras de De Luna consisten en música para películas y arreglos de canciones tradicionales para varios países de habla hispana. Se cree que era un "cazador de canciones" – alguien que hace canciones con sonadas y letras tradicionales poco conocidas.

Veinticinco de Diciembre

The 25th of December

traditional carol; English translation by Pablo Corá

Veinticinco de diciembre, ¡fum, fum, fum!

Nacido ha por nuestro amor,

El niño Dios;

Hoy de la Virgen María

En esta noche tan fría, ¡fum, fum, fum!

[On] December twenty-fifth, fum, fum, fum!
the God-child has been born out of love for us—
today, on such a cold night, from the Virgin Mary, fum, fum, fum!

Pajaritos de los bosques, ¡fum, fum, fum!

Vuestros hijos de coral, ¡fum, fum, fum!

Abandonad, y formad un muelle nido

a Jesús recién nacido, ¡fum, fum, fum!

*Little birds of the woods, fum, fum, fum!
leave your coral clad offspring, fum, fum, fum!
and make a nest for the newborn Jesus, fum,
fum, fum!*

Estrellitas de los cielos, ¡fum, fum, fum!

que a Jesús miráis llorar, ¡fum, fum, fum!

y no lloráis,

alumbrad la noche oscura

con vuestra luz clara y pura, fum, fum, fum!

*Little stars in the skies, fum, fum, fum!
who behold the crying Jesus, fum, fum, fum!
and who yourselves do not cry,
brighten the dark evening
with your clear and pure light, fum, fum, fum!*

Veinticinco de diciembre, ¡fum, fum, fum!

Un niñito muy bonito ha nacido en un portal
con su carita de rosa parece una luz hermosa,

December twenty-fifth, fum, fum, fum!

A very beautiful little child has been born in a manger with his face like a rose he looks like a beautiful light, fum, fum, fum!

Venid, venid pastorcitos, ¡fum, fum, fum!

Venid con la pandereta y castañuelas al portal
que el autor del firmamento yace junto a un vil jumeno, ¡fum, fum, fum!

Come, come little shepherds, fum, fum, fum!

Come to the manger with your tambourine and with castanets that the creator of the heavens lays next to a vile donkey, fum, fum, fum!

Zumba que zumba

Everything buzzes

music by Salvador Ruiz de Luna, English translation by Pablo Corá

Hoy cantan los pajaritos,
y cantan con dulce anhelo
porque en Belén ha nacido
el niño, el rey de los cielos.

*The little birds sing today
and sing with a sweet longing
because in Bethlehem a child is born,
the King of the Heavens.*

Un pensamiento he tenido:
que hoy son más lindas las flores
porque en Belén ha nacido
el amor de los amores.

*I've had a thought: it is that today all the flowers are more beautiful
because in Bethlehem a child is born,
Love of all Loves.*

Zumba que zumba,
zumba Malena,
porque esta noche
voy a acostarme
por la mañana.

Zumba que zumba
que zumbará,
Que hoy es la Nochebuena,
y como es Nochebuena
hay que alborotar.

*Everything buzzes and is abuzz,
Malena is abuzz because tonight
I will go to bed during the morning hours.
Everything buzzes and is abuzz,
and will be abuzz
for tonight is Christmas Eve
and since it is Christmas Eve,
we have to make a racket.*

¡Ay! ¡Qué lindo lucerito que brilla tan resplandeciente!
Va diciendo el caminito
a los tres magos de oriente.

*Ah! What a beautiful little star that shines so bright!
It shows us the way
to the three Magi from the Orient.*

Tras ellos un forajido
les sigue con mala gente,
porque tiene decidido
degollar a un inocente.

They are trailed by a villain

tonight's concert

who follows them in bad company because he has decided to cut the throat of an innocent [child].

Zumba que zumba
no te acomodes,
zumba que zumba
los corazones.
Zumba que zumba
que zumbará.
Como yo me lo atrape
Al manito le voy a perjudicar.
*Everything buzzes and is abuzz,
Don't get comfortable,
everything buzzes and is abuzz,
My heart!
Everything buzzes and is abuzz,
will be abuzz;
should I catch this villain
I will do him harm!*

Campana sobre campana
Bell after bell
traditional carol, English translation by
Pablo Corá

Campana sobre campana
y sobre campana una!
*Bell after bell
and after each bell, another!*
Asómate a la ventana
verás al niño en la cuna.
*Go to your window
and you'll see the Child in His crib.*

Belén, campanas de Belén
que los ángeles tocan,
¿qué nuevas me traéis?
*Bethlehem, bells of Bethlehem
that are rung by angels,
what news do you bring me?*

Recogido tu rebaño,
¿a dónde vas pastorcillo?
Voy a llevar al portal
requesón, manteca y vino.
*Your flock has been reined in;
where do you go, young shepherd?
I am taking cheese, butter, and wine
to the manger.*

Belén, campanas de Belén
que los ángeles tocan,
¿qué nuevas me traéis?
Bethlehem, bells of Bethlehem

*that are rung by angels,
what news do you bring me?*

Caminando a medianoche,
¿hacia dónde vas pastor?
Le llevo al niño que nace
como a Dios mi corazón.
*Walking at midnight,
where are you going, shepherd?
I am bringing my heart to the Child that's about to be born, as to God.*

Din don dan, mañana es navidad,
Din don den
*Ding-dong, tomorrow is Christmas,
ding-dong,*
Campanas de Belén.
Cuando suenan las campanas mi verde mañana
me regala un manantial de amor y esperanza.

*The bells of Bethlehem.
When the bells ring, my green morning regales me with a torrent of love and hope.*

Din don dan...
En honor a la verdad se hace larga la espera pero el amor de Jesús es para la vida entera.
*Ding-dong...
To tell the truth the wait is long,
but the love of Jesus is ever-lasting.*

Din don dan...
Alabanzas al Señor
cantemos con alegría y las campanas
diciendo
“Ave María.”
*Ding-dong,
praises be said to the Lord.
Let us sing with joy and with the bells
saying:
“Hail Mary.”*

Din don dan, que suenan las campanas.
din don dan, cual cándidas hermanas.
Din don dan.
*Ding-dong, may the bells ring.

Arrurrú, arrurrú

Lullaby, lullaby

traditional carol, English translation by Pablo Corá

Señora Doña María,
aquí le traigo a mi hijito
pa' que le meza a su cuna
cuando llore su niñito:

*Mary, my Lady,
I bring my son here [with me]
so that he may rock the crib
of your baby if He cries:*

“Arrurrú, duérmete niño Jesús.”
“Lulla, lullaby, sleep baby Jesus.”

Señora Doña María,
¡Ay, qué lindo es su niñito!
Que en tu lecho humilde está
durmiente muy tranquilito:

*Mary, my Lady,
Oh, how beautiful is your child!
[He] who rests humbly in your bed,
sleeping quietly without care:*

“Arrurrú, duérmete niño Jesús.”
“Lulla, lullaby, sleep baby Jesus.”

Señora Doña María,
cantemos con devoción
para que se duerma el niño;
niño amado Jesucristo:

*Mary, my Lady,
let us sing with devotion
so that the Child may sleep—
the beloved child, Jesus Christ:*

“Arrurrú, duérmete niño Jesús.”
“Lulla, lullaby, sleep baby Jesus.”

and bring me the apple cider [because] I am leaving for Bethlehem.*

¿A dónde vas a esta hora?

Me las echo pa' Belén,
porque voy a andarla en hora

Y es lindo como la luz.

Por eso yo me dirijo
A ver al niño Jesús.

Más que una rosa, es un sol!

la cara del niño Dios!

More than a babe, he is a rose;

more than a rose, he is a sun!

Oh, what most precious thing is the face of the God-child!

que van los doctores,

se van los señores,

lo mismo que yo.

*I leave with my baby,
with a blanket, with umbrella,
I'll trail the [Mount] Aconcagua

the doctors are going,
the Lords are going,
the same as I.*

Noche de paz
Silent night
music by Franz Gruber

Silent night, holy night,
all is calm, all is bright,
round yon Virgin Mother and Child.
Holy infant, so tender and mild,
sleep in Heavenly peace,
sleep in Heavenly peace.

*Noche de paz, noche de amor
todo duerme en derredor,
entre los astros que esparsen su luz
viene anunciando al niñito Jesús, brilla la estrella de paz,
brilla la estrella de amor.*

Silent night, holy night,
Shepherds quake at the sight.
Glories stream from Heaven afar;
Heavenly hosts sing Alleluia!
Christ, the Saviour is born,
Christ, the Saviour is born.

*Noche de paz, noche de amor
ved qué bello resplandor
luce en el rostro del niño Jesús,
en el pesebre del mundo la luz,
astro de eterno fulgor,
astro de eterno fulgor.*

Noche de paz, noche de amor
un eterno resplandor
en las Alturas resuena un cantar:
Os anuncio una dicha sin par,
en la tierra nace Dios,
hoy en Belén de Judá.

*Silent night, holy night,
Son of God, love's pure light radiant beams from Thy holy face with the dawn of redeeming Grace.
Jesus, Lord at Thy birth,
Jesus, Lord at Thy birth.*

O, come Emmanuel ¡Oh, ven Emanuel!
traditional carol, Spanish translation by Pablo Corá

English

O come, O come, Emmanuel,
and ransom captive Israel
that mourns in lonely exile here
until the Son of God appear.
Rejoice! Rejoice!
Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel.
O come, Thou Wisdom from on high,
Who orderest all things mightily.
To us the path of knowledge show,
and teach us in her ways to go.
Rejoice! Rejoice!
Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel.
O come, O come, great Lord of might Who to Thy tribes on Sinai's height in ancient times once gave the law
in cloud and majesty and awe.
Rejoice! Rejoice!
Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel.

Spanish

*¡Oh ven! ¡Oh, ven Emanuel!
Libera a tu cautivo Israel,
que exiliado en tanto dolor
espera al divino redentor.
¡Alégrate, oh Israel!
Por tí ya nace, viene Emanuel.
¡Oh, ven lucero celestial y danos tu divino manantial.
Alúmbranos ya con tu verdad,
disipando toda la oscuridad.
¡Alégrate, oh Israel!
Por tí ya nace, viene Emanuel.
¡Oh ven señor omnipotente
que a Israel pasadamente,
tus leyes y tu potestad
nos diste con gloriosa majestad!
¡Alégrate, oh Israel!
Por tí ya nace, viene Emanuel.*

soar to uncreated light
Striving still to truth unknown,

rejoicing, forever

FRANZ PETER SCHUBERT

Born: January 31, 1797, in Vienna, Austria

Died: November 19, 1828, in Vienna

Best known for: a truly remarkable gift for melodic invention. Despite the limited success and seemingly endless criticism and dismissal of his music Schubert received during his lifetime, he is now rightfully deemed to be one of the greatest of the early Romantic composers. Though he had few champions, Schubert could count among them none other than Ludwig van Beethoven who regarded the young man as a composer of great worth. Schubert's vocal writing also influenced Robert Schumann and Gustav Mahler.

Nacido: 31 de enero de 1797 en Viena, Austria

Murió: 19 de noviembre de 1828 en Viena

Mejor conocido como: un gran talento por su inventivas melodías. A pesar de su limitado éxito y una interminable serie de críticas negativas a su música, Schubert fue considerado en vida como uno de los mejores compositores Románticos. Aunque tenía varios admiradores, Schubert podía contar entre ellos a no otro que Ludwig van Beethoven quien consideraba al joven como un compositor de gran valía. La escritura vocal de Schubert también influyó a Robert Schumann y Gustav Mahler.

Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer

Rudolph, el venado de nariz colorada

music by Johnny Marks, lyrics by Robert May,
Spanish translation by Pablo Corá

Rudolph, the red-nosed reindeer
had a very shiny nose.
And if you ever saw it
you would even say it glows.
All of the other reindeer
used to laugh and call him names.
They never let poor Rudolph play in any reindeer games.

*Rudolph, el ciervo con nariz colorada tenía un hocico muy brillante,
Y si alguna vez lo viste, dirías que es destellante,
Todos los otros venados se mofaban y burlaban de él
Nunca dejaban que el pobre Rudolph jugara con los otros ciervos.*

Then one foggy Christmas Eve
Santa came to say “Rudolph with your nose so bright, won't you guide my sleigh tonight?”
Then all the reindeer loved him
as they shouted out with glee “Rudolph the red-nosed reindeer you'll go down in history.”

*Pero una Noche Buena con mucha neblina,
Papá Noel vino a decirle:
“¿Rudolph, con tu nariz tan brillante, no podrías guiar a mi trineo esta noche?”
Luego, todos los venaditos lo quisieron cuando
anunciaron con alegría:
“Rudolph, el ciervo con nariz de granada, ¡tu
fama será histórica!”*

Blanca Navidad

White Christmas
music and lyrics by Irving Berlin, Spanish
translation by Pablo Corá

Oh, blanca navidad llegas,
blanca de nieve e ilusión;
infantiles sueños pueblan mi mente
y alegre canta el corazón.

*I'm dreaming of a white Christmas,
just like the ones I used to know;
where the treetops glisten and children
listen
to hear sleigh bells in the snow.*

Oh, blanca Navidad eres
bella y sublime inspiración,
de hermosos cantos de paz;
Navideños cantos de amor.

*I'm dreaming of a white Christmas,
with every Christmas card I write.
May your days be merry and bright,
and may all your Christmases be white.*

IRVING BERLIN

Born: May 11, 1888 in Tumen, Russia
Originally named Israel Baline.

Died: September 22, 1989 in New York City

Best known for: writing some of the most popular songs of the past century. Some of his best-loved works include "God Bless America", "Puttin' on the Ritz", "White Christmas", "There's No Business Like Show Business", and music for Annie Get Your Gun.

Curious fact: Irving Berlin's humble origins did not allow for a traditional musical education, and he subsequently never learned to read music. He could play the piano in only one key, F sharp (the black keys), and utilized a "music secretary" to notate his compositions.

Nacido: el 11 de mayo de 1888 en Tumen, Rusia. Se llamaba originalmente Israel Baline.

Murió: el 22 de septiembre de 1989 en New York City

Más conocido por: escribir algunas de las canciones más populares del pasado siglo. Algunas de sus obras más admiradas incluyen "God Bless America", "Puttin' on the Ritz", "White Christmas", "There's No Business Like Show Business", y la música para Annie Get Your Gun.

Dato curioso: los humildes orígenes de Irving Berlin no le permitieron tener una educación musical tradicional por lo que nunca aprendió a leer música. Podía tocar el piano en sólo una nota, F sharp (las teclas negras), y utilizaba un "secretario musical" para anotar sus composiciones.

El pequeño tamborilero The Little Drummer Boy music by Katherine Davies, Spanish translation by Pablo Corá

El camino que lleva a Belén hasta el valle que la nieve cubrió,
los pastorcillos quieren ver a su rey;
le traen regalo en su humilde zurrón.
*The road that leads to Bethlehem
was covered in snow all the way to the valley.
The shepherds want to see their king,
they bear gifts in their pouches.*

Ropopompón
Ra ta tam tam

Ha nacido en un local de Belén, el niño Dios.
*He has been born in a [stable] at Bethlehem,
the God-Child.*

Le quisiera poner a sus pies
algún presente que te agrade, señor, mas tú ya sabes que soy pobre también
y no poseo más que un viejo tambor.
*I would like to place at his feet
a present of [his] liking, Lord.
But you know that I am poor
and that I own nothing but an old drum.*

Ropopompón
Ra ta tam tam

En tu honor frente al portal tocaré, con mi tambor
por el camino que lleva a Belén,
lo voy marcando con mi viejo tambor.
Nada major hay que yo pueda ofrecer;
su ronco acento es un canto de amor.
*In your honor, I will play my drum at the gate and all through the road that leads to Bethlehem.
I am marking the way with the sound of my old timbrel.
There is nothing else that I can offer;
its hoarse accent is a song of love.*

Ropopompón
Ra ta tam tam

Cuando Dios me vió tocando ante Él me sonrió.
Belén, Belén va.
*When God saw me playing in front of Him, He smiled.
[To] Bethlehem, Bethlehem [he] goes.*

Los peces en el río The fish in the river traditional carol, English translation by Pablo Corá

La Virgen se está peinando entre cortina y cortina, los cabellos son de oro y el peine de plata fina.
*The Virgin is grooming herself between sheets;
her hair is made of gold, and her comb is of fine silver.*

Pero mira cómo beben los peces en el río.
Pero mira cómo beben por ver a Dios nacido.
Beben y beben y vuelven a beber
los peces en el río por ver a Dios nacer.
*But look at how the fish are drinking in the river.
But look at how they drink when they see the newborn Lord.
They drink, and they drink, and they drink yet
again when they see God being born.*

La Virgen se está lavando y tendiendo en un romero
los pajarillos cantando y el romero floreciendo.
*The Virgin is washing [the garments] and laying [them] out between rosemary bushes;
the little birds are singing, and the rosemary is blooming.*

Pero mira cómo beben los peces en el río.
Pero mira cómo beben por ver a Dios nacido.
Beben y beben y vuelven a beber
los peces en el río por ver a Dios nacer.
*But look at how the fish are drinking in the
river.
But look at how they drink when they see the
newborn Lord.
They drink, and they drink, and they drink yet
again when they see God being born.*

La Virgen se está lavando con un grano de jabón
Se le ha picado las manos,
manos de mi corazón.
*The Virgin is washing with a grain of soap.
Her hands are stained—hands of my heart!*

Pero mira cómo beben los peces en el río.
Pero mira cómo beben por ver a Dios nacido.
Beben y beben y vuelven a beber
los peces en el río por ver a Dios nacer.
*But look at how the fish are drinking in the
river.*

But look at how they drink when they see the newborn Lord.

They drink, and they drink, and they drink yet again when they see God being born.

Jingle Bells

Suenen las campanas

music and lyrics by James Pierpoint, Spanish
translation by Pablo Corá

Jingle bells, jingle bells,
Jingle all the way.
Oh, what fun it is to ride
In a one-horse open sleigh.

*Suenen las campanas, suenen las campanas,
que suenen por doquier.
¡Cómo divierte siempre andar
en un trineo tirado a caballo!*

Dashing through the snow
on a one-horse open sleigh.
O'er the hills we go,
laughing all the way.
Bells on bob-tails ring,
making spirits bright.
Oh, what fun it is to ride and sing
a sleighing song tonight.

*Volando sobre la nieve
en un trineo tirado a caballo.
Vamos sobre los montes,
riendo sin parar.
Las campanas redoblan
alegrando a nuestro humor.
Oh, ¡qué divertido es andar y cantar
hoy una canción navideña!*

A day or two ago
I thought I'd take a ride
and soon Miss Fanny Bright was seated by my side.
The horse was lean and lank,
misfortune seemed his lot.
We ran into a drifted bank
and there we got upset.

*Un día o dos atrás
pensé en ir de trineo
y pronto Fanny Bright
vino conmigo de paseo.
El caballo era bien flaco
su fortuna mala fue
nos descarrilamos pronto
y el trineo se volcó.*

A day or two ago,
the story I must tell,
I went out on the snow
and on my back I fell.
A gent was riding by
in a one-horse open sleigh.
He laughed at me as I there lay
but quickly drove away.

*Un día o dos atrás
este cuento viene así:
yo salí donde la nieve
y de cola me caí.
Un señor allí pasó
con trineo se paseó
se rió de mi bien fuerte
y volando así se fue.*

Now the ground is white,
go it while you're young.
Take the girls along and sing this sleighing song.
Just bet a bobtailed bay
two forty as his speed.
Hitch him to an open sleigh and crack
you'll take the lead.

*Blanca la nieve calló
juega en ella de niñez
lleva a las niñas contigo y
canta siempre esta canción.
Apuesta tu amuleto
a dos mil millas irá
veloz tu trineo vuela
y ¡paf! tu ganarás.*

Voices Within

Voices Within es un programa de diez semanas que enseña a los estudiantes de 5º y 6º grado cómo explorar su creatividad y trabajar en colaboración en un ambiente de equipo para componer e interpretar sus propias canciones originales. Combinando elementos musicales, de composición musical, escritura, poesía, artes visuales e interpretación, "Voices Within" ha evolucionado hasta convertirse en un plan curricular único y polifacético que se desarrolla en un formato colaborativo de la mano de tres artistas profesionales y el maestro de la clase.

Mientras trabajan en estrecha colaboración con maestros y miembros de la administración de las escuelas participantes, el equipo de tres artistas crea y mantiene un ambiente seguro que inspira la colaboración y el tomar riesgos creativos. Los estudiantes aprenden a identificar y a expresar sus voces internas. Aunque "Voices Within" es una experiencia artística completa, el currículo está diseñado usando como base los Contenidos Musicales Estándar del Estado de California.

Gracias, Asociados de la Master Chorale

La Asociación de Los Angeles Master Chorale desea reconocer las extraordinarias contribuciones de los Asociados de la Master Chorale. Al donar su tiempo, talento y recursos, los miembros voluntarios de los Asociados han creado una base de apoyo para la Chorale desde su creación. Como añadidura a su compromiso al arte coral, los Asociados fundaron un Festival de Coros de Escuelas Superiores en 1990. La edición anual número 16 del Festival tendrá lugar esta primavera y sigue siendo el foco de los Asociados, quienes tienen ahora el compromiso de crear una Fundación de Apoyo para el Festival. El éxito del Festival ha inspirado el crecimiento de los esfuerzos educacionales de la Chorale que ahora incluye a Voices Within, artistas residentes en la escuela y un Festival Universitario de Coros. ¡Gracias, Asociados de la Master Chorale! Estamos muy agradecidos por su apoyo continuo, lleno de entusiasmo y amor por la Chorale.

Thank You, Master Chorale Associates

The Los Angeles Master Chorale Association wishes to acknowledge the extraordinary contributions of the Master Chorale Associates. With their gifts of time, talent and treasure, the volunteer members of the Associates have provided a foundation of support to the Chorale since its inception. As an extension of their commitment to the choral art, the Associates founded a High School Choir Festival in 1990. The 16th annual Festival takes place this spring and remains the focus of the Associates, and the Associates are now committed to creating an endowment in support of the Festival. The success of the Festival has inspired the growth of the Chorale's educational outreach effort which now includes the in-school artist's residency Voices Within and a College Choir Festival. Thank you, Master Chorale Associates! We are very grateful for your ongoing, enthusiastic support and love for the Chorale.

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE ARTS

Master Chorale
in the community:

Voices Within

Voices Within is a ten-week program that teaches 5th and 6th grade students how to tap into their creative inner voices and work collaboratively in a team-based environment to compose and perform their own original songs. Combining elements of music, music composition, writing, poetry, visual art, and performance, Voices Within has evolved into a unique, multifaceted curriculum design that is delivered in a collaborative format by three professional artists and the classroom teacher.

Working in close partnership with teachers and administrators at participating schools, the three-artist teaching team creates and maintains a safe environment that encourages collaboration and creative risk taking. Students learn to identify and express their inner voices. While Voices Within is a holistic arts learning experience, the curriculum is designed in support of the California State Music Content Standards.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Happy New Year and welcome to the Music Center.

In early December we cheered Gordon Davidson's four decades of artistic leadership at Center Theatre Group at a star-studded gala. On January 1 Gordon will become CTG's founding artistic director passing the torch to new artistic director, Michael Ritchie. Michael comes to Los Angeles from the Williamstown Theatre Festival (WTF) where he was producer for the past eight years. Under his guidance, WTF developed and presented new works including David Rabe's Corners, A.R. Gurney's Far East, Paul Rudnick's The Most Fabulous Story Ever Told, John Guare's Chaucer in Rome, Warren Leight's The Glimmer Brothers and Kenneth Lonergan's The Waverly Gallery. Recent Broadway productions that began at WTF include Hedda Gabler, One Mo' Time, The Price, The Rainmaker and The Man Who Had All the Luck. On behalf of the entire Music Center, I would like to welcome Michael. We are thrilled to have him and look forward to many years of his artistic guidance.

In January we inaugurate our exciting Music Center Speaker Series by welcoming Her Majesty Queen Noor of Jordan to Walt Disney Concert Hall. We are delighted to bring some of the most distinguished experts in the fields of politics, media and culture including former President Bill Clinton, Tom Brokaw, Charlie Rose, Daniel Libeskind, Gwen Ifill and David Gergen. Thank you to all of those who have subscribed to this popular series.

To start the year for young audiences we have Performing Books, World City and Pillow Theatre performances. These are wonderful opportunities for you and your children to experience the arts together. For more information, please visit www.musiccenter.org/education.

Enjoy the performance and we look forward to welcoming you back to the Center again soon.

...you'll need a license.

Since its creation in 1994, the Arts License Plate has sold more than 125,000 plates and raised more than $7 million to provide much-needed funds for vital arts programs in schools and communities in California. Designed by noted California artist Wayne Thiebaud, the arts license plate is the state's most popular specialty plate and the first one in the nation whose revenue is solely designated to benefit the arts.

Standard plates cost $50 in addition to your annual renewal fees. Personalized plates may be purchased for $90. Plates may be given as gifts and you can even convert an existing personalized plate, as long as the plate is six characters or fewer.

Order your plate online at www.dmv.ca.gov, download an application at www.cac.ca.gov or request one by calling (800) 201-6201. Your purchase will assist in kids' creative growth and development and provide support for arts programs.
